

Terry Fox Research Institute Transdisciplinary Training Program in Cancer Research

Application Package

Name: _____

Student Number: _____

Department: _____

Program: _____

Primary Supervisor(s): _____

Project Mentor(s): _____

Project Title: _____

A brief letter (1 page maximum) from the student outlining their interest in Transdisciplinary cancer research and what they hope to obtain from the Program

A full CV, including any publications, awards and past experience in cancer research

Transcripts

A letter from the student's graduate supervisor containing a brief summary outlining the proposed transdisciplinary project, the suggested supervisory committee for the student's degree program and a description of how these mentors will contribute to the transdisciplinary experience

Eligibility criteria are as follows:

- Students must be entering their first research year in a Queen's Graduate Program
- Students must already be accepted by the University and by a supervisor to pursue their graduate studies
- Students must be actively working on a transdisciplinary cancer research project during the span of the funding